A MESSAGE FROM BOWLS NSW

On behalf of Bowls NSW, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to the 2025 Open Pennant State Finals – a true celebration of community spirit, competition, and the incredible depth of talent across our state.

Firstly, I extend our heartfelt congratulations to the more than 1,100 teams who participated in this year's competition. Your commitment to the game, your clubs, and your regions is what keeps the sport of bowls strong and vibrant. A special congratulations goes to the teams who triumphed in their regional competitions and now progress to contest the elusive and prestigious State Finals. You've earned your place in this final chapter – enjoy every moment.

A sincere thank you to our 12 outstanding host clubs – Bomaderry, Cabramatta, Charlestown, Ettalong, Lake Cathie, Lambton, Mount Lewis, North Haven, Nowra, Wagga RSL, Wagga Rules, and Yamba. Your hospitality, facilities, and dedication help make events like this a success and allow players and spectators alike to enjoy a welcoming and professional environment.

We also gratefully acknowledge the eight Regional Committees – Central Coast, Greater Newcastle, Illawarra, Metro South West, Mid North Coast, Northern Rivers, Riverina Murray, and South East – for managing the running of the Open Pennant State Finals and supporting both the host clubs and our Bowls NSW staff. Your ongoing effort behind the scenes does not go unnoticed.

To the many club selectors, thank you for stepping forward and shouldering what is often a difficult and thankless task. Your role is vital and appreciated more than you know.

To our passionate supporters who have followed their teams all season and continue to cheer them on here at the finals – thank you! Your energy and encouragement are a key part of what makes this game so special.

And finally, a warm welcome to all players, officials, families, and spectators. As you enjoy the games ahead, please consider showing your appreciation to our host clubs and the many volunteers who make this event possible – a kind word, a 'thank you,' or purchasing a meal or drink goes a long way. We simply can't do this without them.

Enjoy this exciting finale and take pride in being part of a sport that thrives on community, commitment, and camaraderie. Let's celebrate the talent and spirit of bowls!

Good bowling and best of luck to all teams!
